To view my registration and the CIBNZ license, go to the Financial Service Providers Register <https://fsp-register.companiesoffice.govt.nz/> and search our company Financial Service Provider (FSP) number FSP25421. As a licensed Financial Advice Provider, CIBNZ has standard conditions on its license, but these conditions are not specific to CIBNZ and do not limit or restrict advice that may be given.

What financial advice can I provide to you?

I can provide financial advice on commercial and domestic fire and general insurance products. Our insurance product providers are, or are underwritten by, insurance companies that are licensed under the Reserve Bank under Section 19 of the Insurance (Prudential Supervisor) Act 2010. The Insurers have a financial strength rating from an approved rating agency. To view the Insurer ratings, go to <https://www.rbnz.govt.nz/regulation-and-supervision/insurers/licensing/register>.

If you need advice on other types of insurance products then I can refer you to an appropriate financial adviser within our organisation.

How does CIBNZ get paid for the financial advice and products provided to you?

Commission: CIBNZ receives commission from insurers and product providers when you purchase an Insurance Policy. The commission is calculated only on the portion of the premium that the insurer receives – called ‘the Company Premium’. The Company Premium consists of the total premium charged less the government levies (EQC and FENZ) and GST.

The commission received by Certus varies by policy type and insurer. Below is a summary of the commission percentages that Certus receives:

Service fee: Alternatively, CIBNZ may charge a fee for our services when you take out the insurance policy that we have recommended for you, in lieu of commission. This will be set out in the quote and agreed with you before placement of the policy.

Premium Funding: if we assist you with obtaining Premium Funding:

- Salisbury Insurance Limited (“SAL”): SAL is owned by Certus Insurance Brokers (NZ) Limited. SAL will charge a fee and will receive the interest you pay for the premium financed.
- Third party premium funders: a commission and/or fee will be received from the premium finance company. The commission will be calculated as a percentage of the amount that you fund with Premium Funding.

Credit card payments: If you pay us by credit card, we will include an additional surcharge in addition to the amount that you are paying us. The full amount of this surcharge is paid to the credit card issuer.

Placement platforms: We may arrange insurance with insurers using electronic placement systems that enable the exchange of information including the issuing of policy documentation. We are remunerated by insurers who use these placement platforms.

Delegated underwriting: We may be delegated underwriting and claims handling authority by insurer(s) for which we may be remunerated by the insurer. This remuneration may be a commission that is calculated as a percentage of premium (and paid separately to Broking Commission) or a fee.

What fees do we charge?

CIBNZ charges clients a fee for financial advice of 5% for a single policy, or 3% if you have more than one policy, of the insurers' premium payable (excluding levies). Fees are payable by you once our advice is followed, accepted and the insurance policy is purchased, and are due by the effective date of the policy, which is on the invoice. The fees charged are in addition to commission and are for our service, placement, implementation, and administration of the insurance policies that you choose.

How do I get paid?

I receive an annual salary that may include bonuses based on my performance.

How do we act with Integrity?

To ensure that I prioritise your interests above my own, I follow an advice process that ensures recommendations are made on the basis of your individual goals and circumstances. I complete annual and ongoing training about how to manage conflict of interests and a register of interests is maintained. CIBNZ monitors this register, provides additional training where necessary, and performs an annual review of the compliance programme. You should be aware there could be potential conflicts of interest that you may need to take into consideration when you decide to seek and accept financial advice from us. I will make you aware of any conflicts when giving advice.
